A HOUSE RESOLUTION urging the establishment of an interim study commission to review the work of utility companies as it impacts private property.

Whereas, Utility companies must modify the private property of their customers on a daily basis in order to provide basic services (i.e. installation of wires and/or cables, tree trimming, etc.);

Whereas, Private property owners have expressed grievances as to how their property has been altered by the work of utility companies: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the legislative council is urged to establish an interim study commission to review the work of utility companies as it impacts private property.

SECTION 2. That, if the committee is established, it should consider at least the following issues:

(1) What industry practices are in place and commonly used when private property must be altered.

(2) What grievances constituents have as related to this issue.

SECTION 3. That the committee, if established, shall operate under the direction of the legislative council and that the committee shall issue a final report when directed to do so by the council.
